Fund Descriptions

Charlene Coleman Holland Scholarship Fund - established in 2007, with funds generously made available to 171 Cedar Arts Center from the family of Charlene Coleman Holland. This scholarship commemorates Mrs. Holland's interest in the richness of the region's arts and cultural community. Mrs. Holland was deeply committed to furthering music education and programming in the area and was instrumental in establishing the Center's first Suzuki program. Additionally, Charlene was the first Executive Director of the Chemung Valley Arts Council (aka The ARTS Council of the Southern Finger Lakes) in 1973 and lived in the Corning-Elmira area from 1963 to 2001, when she relocated with her husband to Salt Lake City, Utah, upon his retirement. Holland Scholarships are awarded to students who are currently taking private, or group, piano and/or string lessons at 171 Cedar Arts Center.

Edwin Caplin Foundation Scholarship Fund - is committed to fueling passion, encouraging learning, and cultivating philanthropic spirit in the arts through this scholarship, which was established in 2010 to provide financial assistance to students who are participating in the Center's multi-disciplinary arts-programming.

Helen E. Stevenson Memorial Scholarship – established in 2008, by her three sons Rich, Jim, and Andrew Greger, the Helen E. Stevenson Memorial Scholarship extends merit-based arts scholarships to serious art students who have been nominated by their current art instructor or by a member of the community who can speak to their talents and passion.

Rosemary Ann Neal Scholarship Fund – established in 2020, by her son and local artisan, Dwayne Thomas Neal, who resides in Big Flats, NY with his partner, Daniel H. Paquette. This scholarship commemorates Rosemary's love of music and her passion for teaching piano. Scholarships can be for classes in any artistic discipline taught at 171 Cedar Arts Center, and scholarships can also cover associated transportation costs where necessary. Scholarships shall be awarded based on merit and need, as identified by a teacher at the child's school, or by a faculty member at 171 Cedar Arts Center.

171's Experience Art Financial Aid Fund - to make it possible for everyone who wishes to take classes here to do so, 171 has established the Experience Art Fund, which allows participation in 171 Cedar Arts Center's multi-arts programs. The maximum amount of assistance is first determined by the availability of funds and the number of applicants, and then by financial need or merit.

To apply, submit one complete application per student, which includes all of the required materials. Only complete applications will be considered.

Please note the following:

- Scholarship awards are valid September 2020 – August 2021
- All award requirements from the previous years must be complete
- Awards from prior years does not rollover into future years
- Unpaid tuition balances must be fully paid in order to receive award benefits
- Each person living in the applicant residence should be listed on the application (Section 5)
- Awards may be decreased, or terminated, if the recipient demonstrates a low level of commitment to the classes, or is absent an excessive number of times
- 171 Cedar Arts Center reserves the right to terminate assistance at any time

1. Student Paragraph REQUIRED

To help us understand more about your connection to the arts, please write about one of the following topics (feel free to include photos or samples of your work):

- Pick one:
1. Describe a significant music/arts experience in your life and the impact it had on you
 2. Who has been a significant music/arts influence on you?
 3. Describe the most challenging obstacle you have had to overcome; tell us what you learned

2. About You – Student REQUIRED

Please tell us about yourself. Type your responses if possible, if handwritten, make certain your responses are legible.

1. Describe your extracurricular activities and interests – what do you do in your spare time?
2. Describe the skills you have developed by participating in your extracurricular activities
3. List your volunteer activities and why they are meaningful to you
4. Provide details about your home/family responsibilities
5. Describe additional ways you contribute to your community

3. Student Nomination Letters REQUIRED

Please submit two letters of nomination from individuals who are not related to you. Your nominators should be familiar with you, be able to substantiate your artistic aspirations, or be able to speak about their personal experience with you in a supportive way. Nominators could be any of the following types of people, but think of the people who know you best: faith leader, schoolteacher, home-school teacher, cultural organization administrator, family friend, etc.

Nomination letters accompanying this application should be written regarding the applicant listed above and personalized.

DO NOT submit a letter that is written for a group of applicants or written to broadly describe one family.

4. Student Award Requirements REQUIRED

Recipients are required to provide timely written acknowledgement of the award in the form of an acknowledgement / thank you letter. Additionally, following the completion of study recipients are required to provide a short course evaluation, or paragraph, describing their experience. We share your notes and evaluations with the Center's funders who enjoy hearing about how much you love having the arts in your life (we do, too!).
